

KNOW YOUR EARTHLING HISTORY

Brief summary of activity:

This puzzle consists of a series of multiple choice questions based upon the Inuit culture. The user plays the part of an alien visitor to Earth who is trying to gain knowledge of our world.

Specific Curriculum Area:

Unaware of specific area of curriculum.

Assessment method:

Progress through the puzzle is determined by the user given correct answers.

Differentiation:

Pupils of lower ability may need more attempts at questions in order to answer them correctly.

Learning objectives:

Children will learn facts about a culture different to our own.

Use of Activity in a lesson:

This task could be set as a homework activity, assuming Internet access is possible. Alternatively, the teacher could demonstrate the task to the class (via an Interactive Whiteboard) and the pupils could then answer the questions as they arise.

Hints and tips for teachers:

Tell pupils not to get frustrated if they do not succeed until having had many attempts—encourage trial and error.
